"I know Donatello as a very talented speaker and debate facilitator. Not only do I hire him as a speaker, or ask him to be our expert for interviews, I also run into him regularly when he is working on stage. When he is on stage he always knows how to energize the room, gets people communicating with each other and he always is perfect prepared on the subject and event. Donatello never has any problems on giving a difficult discussion an interesting turn and inspire the audience!"
